What kept us Engaged

Employees who feel connected to their organization work harder, stay longer, and motivate others to do the same.

Employee engagement affects just about every important aspect of your organization, including profitability, revenue, customer experience, employee turnover, and more.

We have decided to kickstart such employee engagement programs which we felt is quintessential in an employee centric organization like ours, because this would improve the communication, participation, inclusion, a healthy competition and above all, will keep us tied together as one entity.

Here is a glimpse of the activity we took up. To participate and to know more, you can check out our LinkedIn and Twitter handles.

BIRTHDAYS

Abhisek & Asad

Extending a felicitous commemoration of the day on which you graced this realm! As the sun ascends to mark another chapter of your existence, let us toast to the gentleman whose camaraderie transcends the confines of mere professional affiliations.

A paragon of mirth, your wit bedazzles, much like the stars that adorn the firmament. Your presence exudes a familial embrace, weaving comfort into our tapestry of togetherness. May your boundless benevolence and culinary pursuits continue to nourish hearts and palates alike. Happy birthday, to more of a fraternal compatriot!

Social Media Stars

As a part of the rewards and recognitions policy, we have initiated the amazing categories to felicitate our colleagues who are always a step ahead when it comes to promoting the organisation on various social media platforms.

In order to celebrate such silent contributors, we started the category Social Media Star from the month of May 2023. Every month we will recognize such efforts through their social media activity and we will announce the winner in the subsequent monthly meets. The winners will be felicitated in the Annual Meet.

For this month, let's put our hands together and give a huge round of applause to Adarsh Kumar Sahoo.

Congratulations to you.

Thank You
